

FUTURI MOTION TECH - RETURN FORM

Fill this form in as completely as possible and include it with your return shipment. The return costs are for your own account unless otherwise agreed!

Always notify Futuri Motion Tech in advance before returning your received products. Please give a heads-up by sending an email to mark@futuri.tech.

You always have 14 days to exchange the product or get your money back. This applies when the products return unused, undamaged and in the original packaging. Always send the returns in a sturdy shipping box!

Exceptions!

I can not take back digital products (CAD files, wiring diagrams..) or products that have been fabricated specifically for you, "Delivery time: Build to order". The status is always mentioned with the product. If you have any questions, please get in touch.
